ATTEND THE 30th ANNUAL CONGRESS OF THE AMERICAN COLLEGE OF ALLERGISTS

IN PARIS, FRANCE — APRIL 15 - 22, 1974

and the LONDON — SHAKESPEARE COUNTRY EXTENSION, APRIL 22 - 29, 1974

MONDAY, April 22

TO ENGLAND

Start on your London — Shakespeare Country Extension directly after breakfast. Transfer to the airport for your quick hop to the modly mod and delightfully traditional capital of old world charm — London. On arrival you will be met, assisted and transferred to the METROPOLE HOTEL. The balance of the day is at leisure — muse on the mansions in Mayfair, ponder purchases along Piccadilly, or why not try a traditional tea?

TUESDAY, April 23

LONDON

Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning. In the afternoon, you'll be our guests on a half-day sightseeing trip which features the main shopping streets of London, Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, Big Ben, the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, and Buckingham Palace.

WEDNESDAY, April 24

LONDON

Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning. The afternoon is free — stroll along Regent Street, walk along the Thames, watch the crowds pass by on Trafalgar Square and spot everything from the top deck of a big red bus. You might even take in a play in the evening because theater-going is easy-going and costs very little.

THURSDAY, April 25

LONDON

Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning. This afternoon, it's off to Windsor where you'll marvel at the massive pile of battlemented towers and terraces which has been the residence of English kings and queens for over 800 years. Continue on through Runnymede, famous for the Kennedy Memorial; stop at Hampton Court with its fascinating red brick palace, fine art collection and magnificent gardens. You'll have a chance to muddle through the famous Maze (there's always someone there to help you find your way out!).

FRIDAY, April 26

TO STRATFORD

Say cheery to London as you leave for your journey through Shakespeare Country — Stratford-upon-Avon, Warwickshire... set by the banks of the winding River Avon... it still retains the character and atmosphere of the Elizabethan market town that Shakespeare knew some three centuries ago. Go through Chliten Hills on your way to Oxford and visit the ancient University. Travel through beautiful villages on your way to Stratford. A stop will be made en route for lunch. In Stratford you will see Shakespeare's birthplace and Anne Hathaway's Cottage. Dinner and overnight at the FALCON HOTEL.

SATURDAY, April 27

STRATFORD

Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning. Following lunch, your de luxe motorcoach takes you to Coventry and Warwick. In Coventry, you will visit Coventry Cathedral, rebuilt from the bombed ruins of its predecessor. Continue on to Warwick Castle, a medieval fortress, well preserved and still occupied. Much of the town was destroyed by fire in 1604 but, below the stately castle, portions of the fourteenth-century town still stand.

Return to Stratford and your hotel for dinner. In the evening, attend a performance at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre.

SUNDAY, April 28

STRATFORD

Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning. Travel through the Cotswolds this afternoon, one of the most attractive parts of southern England. Visit the charming village of Broadway on through the Broadway Hills to Stratford-upon-the-Water, called the "Venice of England," and via Gloucester through the Vale of Evesham returning to Stratford in the afternoon.

Dinner at your hotel.

MONDAY, April 29

HOMEWARD

Savor your English breakfast then, by de luxe motorcoach, depart Stratford for London where you will be transferred to the airport for the return flight to your GATEWAY CITY* and home.

WELCOME HOME!!!

LONDON
Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning.
The afternoon is free — stroll along Regent Street, walk along the Thames, watch the crowds pass by on Trafalgar Square and spot everything from the top deck of a big red bus. You might even take in a play in the evening because theater-going is easy-going and costs very little.

THURSDAY, April 25

LONDON
Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning.

This afternoon, it’s off to Windsor where you’ll marvel at the massive pile of battlemented towers and turrets which has been the residence of English kings and queens for over 800 years. Continue on through Runnymede, famous for the Kennedy Memorial; stop at Hampton Court with its fascinating red brick palace, fine art collection and magnificent gardens. You’ll have a chance to mingle through the famous Maze (there’s someone there to help you find your way out!).

FRIDAY, April 26

TO STRATFORD
Say cheery bye to London as you leave for your journey through Shakespeare Country — Stratford-upon-Avon, Warwickshire... set by the banks of the winding River Avon... it still retains the character and atmosphere of the Elizabethan market town that Shakespeare knew some (Friday, April 26, continued) three centuries ago. Go through Chilten Hills on your way to Oxford and visit the ancient University. Travel through beautiful villages on your way to Stratford. A stop will be made en route for lunch. In Stratford you will see Shakespeare’s birthplace and Anne Hathaway’s Cottage. Dinner and overnight at the FALCON HOTEL.

SATURDAY, April 27

STRATFORD
Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning.

Following lunch, your de luxe motorcoach takes you to Coventry and Warwick. In Coventry, you will visit Coventry Cathedral, rebuilt from the bombed ruins of its predecessor. Continue on to Warwick Castle, a medieval fortress, well preserved and still occupied. Much of the town was destroyed by fire in 1694 but, below the staletie castle, portions of the fourteenth-century town still stand. Return to Stratford and your hotel for dinner.

In the evening, attend a performance at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre.

SUNDAY, April 28

STRATFORD
Medical Seminars are scheduled this morning.

Travel through the Cotwolds this afternoon, one of the most attractive parts of southern England. Visit the charming village of Broadway on the way to Broadway Hills to Stratford (in the heart of Cotswolds). Continue to Burton-on-the-Water, called the “Venice of England,” and via Gloucester to the Vale of Evesham returning to Stratford in the afternoon.

Dinner at your hotel.

MONDAY, April 29

HOMEWARD
Savor your English breakfast then, de luxe motorcoach, depart Stratford for London where you will be transferred to the airport for the return flight to your GATEWAY CITY® and home.
